

Global Module 4

Global Partnerships: Connect, create and collaborate with partners around the world

Students are likely already connected to people in other countries - whether it's through social media, video gaming or online conversations. However, students may not know that these simple connections can become new partnerships and the key to collaborations for global business.

This lesson will help students to get comfortable with sharing ideas, finding creative solutions, innovative collaboration and discovering unique ways to work with friends and acquaintances around the world.
